INNU-AITUN

La Maison de la culture innue is located near the church, which is highly popular with the community and tourists.

SHOP

Handcrafted products, some of which are made on-site, local products, traditional music, and an Innu pharmacy, can all be found in our shop. In summer, enjoy bannock bread and jam made of the region's berries, all of which was prepared on-site. Gift certificates are available. Payment can be made by cash or debit/credit card.

SHARING

The Maison de la culture innue is a place where people gather and share the Innu culture and way of life. It is a unique and innovative site that fosters intercultural and intergenerational exchanges. Welcome to all!

TSHIMA MINU TAKUSHINTEK!

TRADITION

The Maison de la culture innue was built on the site where the traditional Innu camp they used during the summer months formerly stood.

CULTURE

The permanent exhibition, The World of the Innu of Ekuanitshit, celebrates the Innu culture and language, but also the development of closer ties between peoples. Two-hour visit.

THE MAISON DE LA CULTURE INNU OF EKUANITSHIT IS A GATHERING PLACE DESIGNED BY THE COMMUNITY FOR THE COMMUNITY.

Our facilities are also used to share our linguistic and medicinal knowledge, as well as our traditional craftsmanship.
